

Two hours. Two lists.

Hour one is you, forty shots. Hour two is you and Mark, forty shots. Four stations in each hour, ten shots at each station, all of it within a few minutes of the main carpark. Your flowing dress, a cocktail dress, jeans and the skirt and top each get the station they are actually best in.

Hour One	Hour Two	Pace	Changes	Best Window
Just you, S1 to S40	You and Mark, D1 to D40	10 shots per station	Two, then one	The last two hours of light

BEFORE YOU START

Forty shots in an hour is ninety seconds a shot

It is a fast hour, and it only works because the shots come in tens without moving. Get to a station, shoot ten, walk to the next. No wandering, no reviewing on the back of the camera between frames, no discussion about what to do next. That is the whole trick.

Station 1	Station 2	Change	Station 3	Station 4
0 to 15 min	15 to 28	28 to 32	32 to 44	47 to 60

Where each outfit earns its place

The flowing dress goes in the wind and the water, because movement is the only thing that dress does better than the others, and Piha supplies wind for free. The cocktail dress goes on the black rock, where the contrast is sharpest. Jeans carry everything warm and human, the thermos, the blanket, the laughing. The skirt and top go on Mark's hour at Lion Rock, where the frames have to sit next to a retreat price and be believed.

The cocktail dress will be freezing, and it is worth it

Twelve minutes on wet black rock in a cocktail dress in August is genuinely cold. Coat on between every take, someone holding it ready, and shoot that station faster than the others. It is the most striking set on either list: a cocktail dress on black iron sand looks like nothing else in your niche, and it gives you the press and podcast frames in one go.

Shoot it in the last two hours of daylight if you can choose

Every frame here works in flat midday light and about fifteen of them get much better in low sun: the backlit ones, the rim lit hair, the long shadows, anything through spray haze. If the timing is yours to pick, start hour one two hours before sunset and let hour two finish in the last of it.

Bring these or the hour stalls

A coat for between takes, a wool blanket that doubles as a prop, a thermos, dry socks, a bin liner to change on, a comb and a soft brush for sand in your hair. Iron sand is abrasive, so no lens changes on the beach. Black sand also fools the meter, so dial in about a stop under and expose for skin.

HOOR ONE

Just you, forty shots

Dress first while the wind is your friend, cocktail dress on the rock in the middle, jeans at the end so you finish warm. Two changes, both at the car.

0 to 15 Station 1, the dunes and the wind

Wearing: the flowing dress, bare feet. Do not fight the wind or fix anything, that is the entire station. Ten shots.

☐ S1 Standing straight into the wind

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · 85MM

Chin into it, hands down at your sides, dress and hair pushed hard. If we only get one frame all hour, this is it.

FOR Course hero

☐ S2 Laughing at the wind

VERTICAL · THREE QUARTER · 85MM

Same spot, but let it be funny, because it is. The warmth version of S1.

FOR Social

☐ S3 Hands back through your hair

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 85MM

Both hands back through the cut, elbows wide, eyes down then up to me. Ten of these, it is the haircut frame.

FOR The new cut, everywhere

☐ S4 Hair across the face, one eye clear

VERTICAL · TIGHT · 135MM · EMPTY RIGHT THIRD

Let the wind put hair across your face and leave it. One eye locked on the lens. Empty third for thumbnail text.

FOR YouTube thumbnails

☐ S5 The turn, hair and skirt mid swing

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · BURST

Face away, turn on a count. Ten times. I shoot the middle of the turn, never the end.

FOR Social, reels

☐ S6 Walking the dune ridge, side on

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 135MM · SKY BEHIND

Along the top with nothing but sky behind. Expose for skin or you get an accidental silhouette. Two passes.

FOR Wide banners

☐ S7 Running down the dune face

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · ONE FROZEN, ONE AT 1/30

Run properly, sand flying. The deliberately blurred one usually beats the sharp one.

FOR Reels cover

☐ S8 Lying back in the hollow

HORIZONTAL · FROM DIRECTLY ABOVE · 35MM

Down out of the wind, sand and grass round your face, eyes closed, one arm above your head. Shot straight down.

FOR Course, the rest section

☐ S9 Sitting in the spinifex, chin on knee

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Dress spread around you, one knee up, chin resting on it, looking off. The quiet one in a loud station.

FOR Blog, page breaks

☐ S10 Close, wind, eyes to lens

VERTICAL · HEAD AND SHOULDERS · 135MM WIDE OPEN

Mouth soft, no teeth, hair moving. Think about one client you actually like. This one lives or dies on the eyes.

FOR Quiz opt in, podcast

15 to 28 Station 2, the waterline and the wet sand

Still the flowing dress, hem up or let it get wet, your call. Camera goes almost on the sand for the reflections. Ten shots.

☐ S11 Standing in your own reflection

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · DEAD CENTRE, SYMMETRICAL

Feet in a centimetre of water, arms loose, chin level. Completely still for ten seconds so the water goes glassy.

FOR Course sales page hero

☐ S12 The reflection alone

HORIZONTAL · CAMERA ON THE SAND · YOU CROPPED AT THE KNEE

I frame the upside down you and cut the actual you off above the knee. Odd and beautiful, and it gives the site art that is not a portrait.

FOR Dark section art

☐ S13 The compressed reflection

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 135MM · CAMERA VERY LOW

Same idea from a long way back, so you and the mirrored you stack tight in the middle of a huge flat plane.

FOR Hero banner

☐ S14 Walking through the shallows, side on

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · PANNING · 1/60

Parallel to me through ankle water, no stopping, five passes. Skirt moving, water moving, you steady in the middle.

FOR Reels, 9:16 crop

☐ S15 Standing in the stream cut

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Where the stream cuts the beach, stand in the middle of it with water running round your ankles. Moving water, still everything else.

FOR Quiz opt in

☐ S16 Skirt in one hand, stepping through

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 85MM

Hem gathered in one hand, looking down at where you are putting your feet. The looking down is what sells it.

FOR Course page, social

☐ S17 Arms open low, chin up

HORIZONTAL · THREE QUARTER · 50MM

Eyes closed, arms out low and relaxed rather than up and triumphant. Low arms read as ease, high arms read as a stock photo.

FOR Course, the after section

☐ S18 Sitting at the water line, knees up

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Arms round your knees, looking out at the Tasman. Not sad, just quiet. Give it a minute before I start.

FOR Blog headers

☐ S19 Walking away into the wet sand

HORIZONTAL · VERY WIDE · 35MM

Away from me across the mirror, footprints and reflection trailing behind. Keep going until I call it.

FOR Footer, closing band

☐ S20 Wet hem, feet, sand, water

HORIZONTAL · CLOSE CROP · NO FACE

Just the bottom of the dress, your feet and the water pulling back over black sand. Texture frame, and it will be used more than you expect.

32 to 44 Station 3, the black rock at Lion Rock

Cocktail dress. Coat on between every single take, and shoot this station faster than the others. Hard side light on black stone, warm skin, one sharp colour. Ten shots.

☐ S21 Against the black rock wall

VERTICAL · WAIST UP · 85MM · HARD SIDE LIGHT

Shoulders back on the rock, face lifted into the light, one hand at your side and not on your hip. Let the rock go almost black.

FOR About, credibility

☐ S22 Arms crossed, no smile

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 85MM

Straight down the lens, mouth closed, nothing softening it. Ten frames without apologising for any of them.

FOR Podcast cover, press

☐ S23 Profile against sky

VERTICAL · HEAD AND SHOULDERS · 135MM · SKY ONLY BEHIND

Pure profile with nothing behind you but light. Rim along the jaw and the back of the cut. The cleanest record of the shape.

FOR Section markers

☐ S24 Tiny on the rock shelf

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 24MM · HUGE NEGATIVE SPACE

Very far back and very low. The headline goes in the rock face, so leave the whole left of the frame empty.

FOR Hero banner with copy over

☐ S25 Sitting in the rock cleft

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Sit into the gap in the rock, dress spread across black stone. The single most editorial frame either of us will get today.

FOR Press, feature imagery

☐ S26 Bare feet on wet black rock

VERTICAL · CLOSE CROP · ANKLES AND HEM

Skin and hem against wet black stone. No face. Pure texture and contrast, and it is the palette of the whole brand in one frame.

☐ S27 Head and shoulders, rock black behind

VERTICAL · HEAD AND SHOULDERS · 135MM

Half a smile, not a full one. Black behind, warm skin, nothing else in the frame competing.

FOR Homepage portrait

☐ S28 Walking the base, dress moving

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 85MM

Along the bottom of the rock, looking away from me, dress catching the wind. Three passes, do not stop for any of them.

FOR Movement, social

☐ S29 Hand flat on the rock

VERTICAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Palm on the stone, chin turned away so the cut reads in profile against the dark. Slow blink, then open.

FOR Course module cards

☐ S30 Full length, straight to lens, feet apart

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Weight even, feet apart, hands loose, looking right at me. No softening, no head tilt. The frame that says the whole thing without a caption.

FOR Course hero, press

47 to 60 Station 4, the open sand and the car boot

Jeans, knit, coat, blanket. Finish warm and finish human. Ten shots.

☐ S31 Walking at camera, Lion Rock behind

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 135MM COMPRESSION

Start a long way off and walk at me without stopping. Do not think about your face. The rock stacks up huge behind you.

FOR For Her homepage hero

☐ S32 Stopped, hands in pockets

VERTICAL · THREE QUARTER · 135MM · RIM LIT

Stop where you are, hands in pockets, half a smile. Sun behind so the edge of the cut lights up.

FOR Homepage portrait

☐ S33 Backlit close through the haze

VERTICAL · HEAD AND SHOULDERS · 135MM WIDE OPEN

Sun behind your head, salt haze in the air, everything glowing. Eyes to lens. Probably the portrait that goes at the top of the course page.

FOR Course hero portrait

☐ S34 Hair as a halo

VERTICAL · HEAD AND SHOULDERS · 135MM

Sun directly behind the head, exposed for the face so the cut lights up as a rim of gold. Makes short hair look like a decision.

FOR Course, podcast art

☐ S35 Walking away, looking back

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · 135MM

Away from me, then turn and look back over the shoulder without stopping. Six or seven goes, it is hard to get right.

FOR Homepage, For Her hero

☐ S36 On the tailgate, one knee up

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 35MM

Sprawled rather than arranged. Not ladylike, which is rather the point of the whole brand.

FOR Blog, podcast episode art

☐ S37 Blanket round the shoulders, straight to lens

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 85MM

Pull the wool up and look right at me. Cold cheeks, warm eyes. The best possible frame to sit above an email sign up box.

FOR Quiz opt in, newsletter

☐ S38 Pouring from the thermos

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 50MM · STEAM BACKLIT

Not looking at me and not aware of me. Just pour the tea.

FOR Blog, email header

☐ S39 Head back, laughing

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 85MM · BURST

Whatever makes you laugh properly. I want the one where your eyes have gone completely.

FOR Social, joy

☐ S40 Last one, collar up, no smile

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 85MM

Coat collar up, cold, done, straight down the lens. The end of the hour always gives something the start cannot.

FOR Press, About

HOURL TWO

You and Mark, forty shots

Credibility first while you both still look pressed, then jeans for everything warm. One change only. Nothing here is stock-style couples photography: the closeness lives in the shoulders, not the smile.

0 to 15 Station 1, Lion Rock and the black rock

Wearing: the skirt and top, Mark in a shirt. These are the frames that have to sit next to a retreat price and be believed. Ten shots.

☐ D1 Shoulder to shoulder, straight to lens

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Both serious, both level, no touching. The two therapists frame. It has to hold its ground next to a number.

FOR Credibility band, retreat page

☐ D2 The same frame, one beat later, laughing

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Do not reset. Say something to each other and let it go. Same setup, completely different page.

FOR About us, warm version

☐ D3 Her hand on his chest, his over hers

VERTICAL · CHIN TO WAIST · 85MM · NO FACES

Crop the heads off deliberately. Two hands, one chest, breathing. Anonymous, so it can carry any page including the ones about other people's marriages.

FOR Therapy page, safe anywhere

☐ D4 Apart on the shelf, turned in, talking

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

A metre of space between you, both turned toward each other, actually talking. Not posed conversation, an actual one.

FOR Couples therapy page

☐ D5 He stands, she leans on his leg

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

You sit on the shelf, back against his shin, his hand on your shoulder, both looking out. The portrait of how you two actually work.

FOR About us portrait

☐ D6 Backs on the rock, heads turned in

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM · HARD LIGHT

Both leaning back on the wall, heads turned to each other, half a smile on one of you and not the other.

FOR Dark section, sticky bar

☐ D7 Hands on forearms, eyes on eyes

VERTICAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Gripping each other's forearms, nobody talks, twenty seconds. The self consciousness passes at about eight seconds and that is when I shoot.

FOR Therapy page hero

☐ D8 Foreheads together, eyes closed

VERTICAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

One slow breath in together. Hold it three breaths, I shoot all three.

FOR Therapy page

☐ D9 Both tiny under Lion Rock

HORIZONTAL · VERY WIDE · 24MM · COPY SPACE ABOVE

Rock enormous, sky clear for the headline. Walk slowly across so I get three positions.

FOR Full bleed hero

☐ D10 The hand up onto the shelf

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 35MM · MID PULL

He is up, you are not yet. Actual weight through the arms. Shoot the middle of the pull, not the arrival.

FOR Intensives hero

18 to 33 Station 2, the open beach, long lens

Both in jeans and knitwear now. 135mm for almost all of it, so Lion Rock stacks up behind you. Ten shots.

☐ D11 Walking at camera, mid conversation

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 135MM

Long walk straight at me, talking the whole way, never looking at the lens. Three passes. This is most likely the homepage hero, so give it the time.

FOR Homepage hero

☐ D12 Walking away hand in hand

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 135MM

Away from me down the beach, compressed against the rock. Keep going, the further you get the better it works.

FOR Wanaka retreat, footer

☐ D13 He spins her, sand kicking up

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM · FAST SHUTTER

Low sun catches the kicked sand and turns it gold. Two goes only, it is hard work in sand.

FOR Events, Connection Playground

☐ D14 A kiss on the temple, backlit

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 135MM · RIM THROUGH THE HAIR

Not on the mouth. On the temple, your eyes closed. Restraint reads as long love. A mouth kiss reads as an engagement shoot.

FOR Homepage, the tender one

☐ D15 Both to camera, squinting and laughing

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Arms round each other, light in your faces, both squinting about it. Slightly imperfect on purpose.

FOR About us

☐ D16 The two of you and the whole sweep

HORIZONTAL · VERY WIDE · 24MM · COPY SPACE IN THE SKY

Right back. The full beach, Lion Rock, two small figures. Leave the top half clear for a headline.

FOR Full bleed banner

☐ D17 He photographs her on his phone

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Exactly what couples actually do on a beach. He takes a photo, you laugh at him taking it, I photograph both of you. The most honest frame of the hour.

FOR Social, About us, email

☐ D18 On the driftwood, her legs over his

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 85MM

Legs across his lap, foreheads close, both talking. Twenty years of ease in the posture. Two full minutes with no direction from me.

FOR Retreat page

☐ D19 Side by side, both looking out

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Standing still, shoulders touching, both watching the sea. Say nothing for a while. I will wait.

FOR Homepage quiet band

☐ D20 Two hands, fingers laced

VERTICAL · CLOSE CROP · NO FACES

Just the hands, against jeans or against sand. Twenty years of hands. Works on any page and never dates.

FOR Page breaks, therapy page

33 to 46 Station 3, the waterline and the wet sand

Jeans rolled, bare feet. Camera low. The two locked off pairs in here are the strongest idea on the whole list, so do not skip either half. Ten shots.

D21

Two reflections closing the gap

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · LOW CAMERA · THREE FRAMES

Start ten metres apart in the mirror and walk toward each other. I take it at ten metres, at three, and at touch.

FOR Homepage hero

D22

Backs to camera, a gap between you

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · TRIPOD LOCKED

Both looking out to sea, about thirty centimetres apart, not touching. This is the picture of the sentence already on your site.

FOR Homepage dark band

D23

The same frame, hands found

HORIZONTAL · IDENTICAL FRAMING TO D22

Nothing changes except the hands find each other. Same locked off camera so the two run side by side on the page.

FOR Therapy page, the pair

Half of the strongest idea on this list.

D24

Palm to palm, both reflected

VERTICAL · FULL LENGTH · SYMMETRICAL · LOW CAMERA

Facing each other, hands up and pressed together, both doubled in the water. Keep a gap between your bodies so the shape stays clean.

FOR Therapy page, intensives

D25

Walking away through the mirror

HORIZONTAL · VERY WIDE · 35MM

Hand in hand, footprints and two reflections trailing behind. Keep walking until I call it.

FOR Retreat closing, footer

D26

Single file up the stream cut

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 85MM

Walking up the middle of the stream, you first, him following, both watching your footing. Nobody performing.

FOR Wanaka retreat

D27

He lifts her, both laughing

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM · FAST SHUTTER

Actual lift, actual spin, water underfoot. Do it twice, the second is always looser.

FOR Events, Connection Playground

D28

Back to back in the wet sand

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM

Sitting, spines touching, each looking a different way. Not a fight. Two people holding each other up while facing separate directions.

FOR Therapy page, the honest one

D29

She whispers, he closes his eyes

VERTICAL · WAIST UP · TIGHT · 135MM

Say something to him quietly. I do not need to hear it. I need his face when he does.

FOR Intimacy section, course cross sell

D30

Four feet at the water's edge

HORIZONTAL · CLOSE CROP · NO FACES

Both barefoot, water pulling back over black sand around four feet. Small, ordinary, and it will end up on three pages.

FOR Page breaks, social

Piha, two hours

8

46 to 60 Station 4, the car boot and the blanket

Jeans and coats. Nothing styled. Put the thermos on and let the camera be there while you use it. Ten shots.

☐ D31 He turns away, she watches him

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · 50MM · LOCKED OFF

No acting. He walks a few steps away and stops. You stay and watch him. That is all. The camera does not move.

FOR Therapy page, the problem section

Pairs with D32. Same lens, same spot, camera locked.

☐ D32 Thirty seconds later, the repair

HORIZONTAL · IDENTICAL FRAMING TO D31

He turns back. You are already reaching. Same frame, so the two sit next to each other and say the whole thing your work says.

FOR Therapy page, paired with D31

The other half of the strongest idea on this list.

☐ D33 Under one blanket, looking out

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · FROM BEHIND · 35MM

Both on the tailgate under the same blanket, backs to me, watching the sea. Say nothing for a while.

FOR Homepage quiet band

☐ D34 One cup, passed across

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 50MM

Share the one cup. The handover is the frame. Four or five times while you talk about something else.

FOR Email header, social

☐ D35 He wipes the sand off her foot

HORIZONTAL · FULL LENGTH · LOW · 35MM

Exactly what it says. Small, practical, tender. Care looks like this and not like a kiss on a clifftop.

FOR Therapy page, the care frame

☐ D36 Both laughing at something off camera

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Not at each other, at a third thing. Shared attention is warmer than eye contact and much harder to fake.

FOR About us, social

☐ D37 Her head on his shoulder, both quiet

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

On the tailgate, head down on his shoulder, both looking at nothing. Tired and easy. Let it go on longer than feels necessary.

FOR Homepage, newsletter

☐ D38 He holds her hair out of her face

VERTICAL · CHEST UP · 85MM

Let it actually happen, then let it be funny. The most human frame of the day and probably the one you end up loving.

FOR About us, social

☐ D39 Two faces close, blanket, cold cheeks

HORIZONTAL · HEAD AND SHOULDERS · 85MM

Both inside the blanket, faces close, cold and pleased about it. The most intimate frame on the list and it has both of you clothed to the chin.

FOR Newsletter, retreat page

☐ D40 Last one, both to lens, arms round, done

HORIZONTAL · WAIST UP · 85MM

Straight down the lens, arms round each other, finished. Nobody has any performance left by now, which is exactly why this frame usually works.

FOR About us, the closing frame

IF AN HOUR GETS CUT SHORT

The ten worth losing everything else for

Weather, cold, a late start. Get these and both sites can still be built.

- S1 standing into the wind, and S33 backlit close through the haze. One is the course, the other is the portrait everything else hangs off.
- S3 hands back through your hair. The whole reason for the trip.
- S30 full length, straight to lens, feet apart. The frame that needs no caption.
- S37 blanket round the shoulders, straight to lens. It sells the opt in on its own.
- D11 walking at camera, mid conversation. Most likely homepage hero.
- D1 shoulder to shoulder, serious. The frame that has to sit next to a retreat price.
- D22 and D23 the gap, then the hands found, same locked off frame. Two pictures that say what your work does.
- D31 and D32 the turn away and the repair. The same idea again, and the pair the therapy page is built on.

Rain is not a reason to cancel. Piha in rain gives wet black rock, low cloud on the ridge and an empty beach, and the rock station and the car boot station both work better in it. Only wind over about 40 knots or a big swell is worth moving the date for. Nobody goes past ankle depth at any point, the water there is the most dangerous in the country.
